stated that he last spoke to [redacted] approximately six weeks ago at her residence in [redacted]

[redacted] was advised of the provisions of the Harboring Statute and he stated that he would in no way aid SULLIVAN and is certain that SULLIVAN will not contact him now that he is in a fugitive status.

On November 10, 1980, JACK EGGER, Director of Security; Burbank Movie Studios, advised that he was contacted by [redacted] right after the teletype was received by [redacted] and the two of them interviewed [redacted]. He verified information previously given by [redacted] and could add nothing additional of a positive nature regarding subject. He advised that he has distributed copies of subject's photographs to all of his personnel covering the movie lot and further advised that his guard post number four which is at Gate Four is directly across from the front door of Caliban Productions, which is the main office for [redacted] and that personnel at that post have been instructed to remain alert for any possibility of subject appearing at that location. He stated that there has never been any indication of subject ever having been to the Caliban office.

On November 20, 1981, [redacted] was interviewed at the offices of Caliban Productions. He advised that he has not had any contact personally with JOE SULLIVAN since November, 1980 when he saw him in New York City during the shooting of [redacted] latest film called "Lookin' to Get Out." He advised that that movie is a comedy about two gamblers going to Las Vegas and that SULLIVAN had nothing to do with either the production or background of that movie. He stated that he has been in the process of negotiating, through Attorney RAMSEY CLARK, with SULLIVAN for the rights to his life story which he plans on making into a movie called "Tiers and Tears". He stated that the negotiations have not progressed past the stage where he has even purchased an option to buy the rights to SULLIVAN's story. He stated that at present, there is a contract being drawn up through the Columbia Offices which will be forwarded to RAMSEY CLARK, which contract will offer SULLIVAN $25,000 as an option for the right to purchase his life story for a price of $250,000 at some later date if the option is so exercised.

[redacted] advised that he had several conversations with SULLIVAN during March or April, 1981 and did speak to him on one occasion around June or July, 1981 but has not seen or heard from him since. He did state that he has been negotiating through both RAMSEY CLARK and [redacted], both of whom are suppose to have power of attorney to negotiate for SULLIVAN. [redacted]

The following investigation was conducted by SAs

On November 6, 1981, Detective [redacted], Burbank Police Department, advised that on October 18, 1981, he received a teletype from New York City Police Department wherein it was advised that JOSEPH JOHN SULLIVAN was wanted by New York authorities for a double attempted murder in that city occurring on June 6. The teletype advised that it was believed that SULLIVAN was in contact with [redacted] and [redacted] at Burbank Movie Studios in Burbank and that there was a possibility he might be in direct contact with them. [redacted] advised that he immediately contacted JACK EGGER, Director of Security for Burbank Movie Studios, and the two of them interviewed [redacted] a couple days after receipt of the teletype. [redacted] told [redacted] that he had been in telephonic contact with SULLIVAN several months prior to the present time but could not give an exact date. He stated that he thought it might have been June or July of 1981 when he last spoke to SULLIVAN telephonically:

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that [redacted] appeared cooperative but [redacted] got the impression that [redacted] knew more regarding subject than he was willing to talk about. [redacted] continued to refer to Attorney RAMSEY CLARK for any specific information regarding negotiations with SULLIVAN pertaining to a movie deal that [redacted] was going to consummate with him.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that his investigation determined nothing positive regarding the present whereabouts of SULLIVAN.

On November 6, 1981, Senior Special Agent [redacted] California Department of Corrections, Apprehension Unit, 3415 Fletcher Drive, Suite 201, El Monte, California, advised that he was contacted by [redacted] after [redacted] received the teletype from New York. [redacted] advised that [redacted] had determined that SULLIVAN was a parole violator from New York and that that falls within [redacted] jurisdiction in the State of California and [redacted] call was to advise him that there was a possibility of a New York parole violator being within his jurisdiction. [redacted] advised that he has conducted no investigation regarding this matter and that in his contacts with [redacted] he has determined that there is no positive information regarding subject's whereabouts.

Bureau File # 9-72613

Narrative of Offense: On 3/19/91, Jack Egger, Director, Studio Protection, Warner Brothers Studio Facilities, furnished sixteen letters addressed to either [redacted]. Both individuals appear on the television show "Growing Pains". One letter was also addressed to [redacted] in care of ABC television. Egger stated some of the letters contained threats. The letters addressed to the Growing Pain Production office, were received through the United States mail by the Warner Brothers Studios at 4000 Warner Boulevard, Burbank, California. Egger related the letters were postmarked in [redacted] and signed by an individual using the name [redacted]. He stated the threats concerned injury to [redacted]. Additionally, the writer made statements concerning travel to Los Angeles and the use of a gun. The threats were considered serious and extra security was in place on the "Growing Pains" set.

b6
b7C

A preliminary investigation was also conducted by the New York office of the FBI, regarding mail received from [redacted], by actors [redacted].

b6
b7C

A review of the items received on 3/19/91 produced sixteen envelopes, fifteen letters, [redacted]. The items were numbered, dated, initialed and retained as evidence. Each original item received in this case is designated by a Los Angeles evidence number (#_) and a corresponding FBI Laboratory specimen number (Q_).

The envelope and letter designated #1, (Q4 & Q5) was initially believed similar in handwriting to the remaining letters. Examination by the FBI Document Section (report dated 6/26/91) determined this letter was not prepared by the same writer.

B-1

Letters numbered 8, 9, 11, 12, 17, 19, 20 and 21 contain threats in violation of Title 18, United States Code, section 876. In this regard, the envelope identified as #12, received in the mail room at Warner Brothers does not bear a stamp or postmark. On 10/3/91, letters identified as #17 and #18 were furnished by Jack Egger. He was unable to produce the original envelope for letter #17 at that time.

On 7/18/91, Egger provided a copy of a 23 page letter and "biography" (#19) from [redacted]

[redacted] The letter was previously received at the North Hollywood residence of [redacted] This letter states in part, "[redacted]

Egger advised the original envelope and letter (#19) were provided to International Security Management (ISM), a Potomac, Maryland company on contract with Time Warner Inc., New York, New York. On 8/2/91, ISM personnel interviewed [redacted] and obtained a signed statement. The contacts with [redacted] were the subject of an ISM report provided to the FBI by Egger on 9/20/91. The ISM contact of [redacted] was done without the knowledge of the FBI. On 9/19/91, following an attempt to secure original items from ISM via Jack Egger, [redacted] ISM, telephonically contacted SA [redacted]. [redacted] stated he was unaware of the FBI interest in this case until advised by Egger on 9/18/91. [redacted] advised he interviewed [redacted] and obtained a signed statement, wherein [redacted] admitted writing certain threatening letters to certain personalities in the entertainment industry. [redacted] advised the original statement and a tape of the interview were in the possession of his company.

On 8/22/91, [redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents of the Philadelphia division of the FBI. He admitted writing threatening letters to [redacted] and others. He stated he [redacted]

On [redacted] telephonically contacted the Philadelphia case agent, advising he was in Las Vegas, Nevada after sight seeing in Los Angeles for five days from [redacted] [redacted] He stated he was considering visiting the "Growing Pains" production set.

b6
b7C

A review of the letters furnished to the FBI disclose references concerning travel to Los Angeles in letters numbered 2, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22.

Letter #18 details a visit by [redacted]
[redacted] In this regard, a male caller made two telephone calls to the Hannibal Courier Post newspaper. The caller believed to be [redacted] stated in part "[redacted]

On 9/30/91, Sergeant [redacted], Hannibal Missouri Police Department, furnished a copy of his report concerning the 9/18/91 telephone call and 9/20/91 letter.

On 10/1/91, [redacted] was interviewed concerning the Hannibal, Missouri telephone calls and letter. He admitted responsibility for both. His interview was predicated on the actual disappearance of a young Missouri boy on or about 7/25/91. There is no indication [redacted] was in the Hannibal, Missouri area during the July, 1991 time frame.

b6
b7C

During the 10/1/91 interview, [redacted] again admitted his letter writing activities. He specifically admitted to writing letter #17. He also stated he made telephone calls to the British Embassy in Washington, D.C., threatening [redacted] and Prince Phillip.

On 9/25/91, following the receipt of a copy of a letter #17, a statement was noted concerning [redacted] driving onto the White House lawn and allowing the Secret Service to shoot him. On the same date, notification of the statement and background was furnished to the Los Angeles office of the Secret Service.

b7C

On 9/25/91, efforts were made to contact the respective agents for actors [redacted] and Corey Haim without receiving any response. On 10/10/91, another attempt was made to contact the agent or manager for Corey Haim. Investigation determined Haim has not opened his fan mail for the past two years and according to his management company representative, it did not appear there was any interest in the [redacted] matter.

On 10/15/91, [redacted]
[redacted] recontacted the Los Angeles office based on her prior contact on 10/10/91. [redacted] advised she was unable to locate any original letters received in this matter as previously requested.

JACK EGGER, Director of Security, WARNER BROS. STUDIOS, 4000 Warner Boulevard, telephone (818) 954-1451, was located and interviewed at his place of employment. EGGER was advised of the official identities of the interviewing Agents, and the purpose of the interview.

EGGER thereafter furnished a folder containing threatening letters received by [redacted] and others. EGGER related that approximately one year ago, [redacted], an actor from the television show "Growing Pains" began receiving letters from an individual known as [redacted]. Some of the letters are threatening in nature and also threaten other individuals associated with the WARNER BROS. STUDIOS. Subsequently, actress [redacted] of the same television program also received a series of letters from the same individual wherein threats were conveyed regarding [redacted] and others.

b7C

EGGER explained that in addition to letters received by the studio, a series of recorded telephone messages from an answering machine maintained by "Growing Pains" Productions, were secured and furnished. In this regard, [redacted] furnished three cassette tapes which contained messages from an unknown male left on the production office recorder.

EGGER stated [redacted] are concerned about their safety in view of the nature of the letters, and the fact that the same individual now appears to be using a telephone to continue his contacts with the studio.

b6
b7C

Special Agent (SA) [redacted] thereafter accepted the folder of letters and the three cassette tapes from EGGER.
